Doers! By Mike Aleziah Ellis has been blessed to put together an (easy read) of complex realities that currently rotates in our world, our country, our communities and our living social circles. If (we) are missing the moving parts around us - that surely is affecting/effecting us (directly or indirectly), this is the book that not only enlightens us on the causes/effects of key premeditated actions, but intuitively offers solutions before the aftermath. This is the 101 level prepared to inform US how (humanity) got to NOW and how we get Beyond Xen! We are all complicit - if not blindly compliant! Read. Know. Do.

When we are all shipwrecked together stuck out in the middle of the sea, we tolerate one another. But, when we are rescued ashore, we retreat to Xen - Our isolated silos of moral escape where we are most comfortable practicing xenophobic works of darkness: racism, distrust, hatred, exploitation, disrespect, insensitivity, discrimination, separatism, and other unnecessary iniquities. We help to shine the light differently on people from all walks of life by elevating your consciousness of xenophobic delusion and liberating you from xenophobic practices that promote disunity. Promoting Spiritual Truths in the face of collective delusion. XEN is comparable to that detestable food you refuse to eat unless you're starving. Beyond Xen is not a [place] which is merely defined as material physical elements of existence, but is a spiritual [space] that has been transformed by human elements of existence. Beyond Xen is a loving spiritual conviction that transcends a lifetime pursuing unifying ideals that promote SOCIAL STEWARDSHIP. As believers, we are all members of the same Body of Christ, representing different parts whereby each is given certain spiritual gifts to be shared with one another collectively for the common good. Therefore, we should all endeavor to leave no one behind, and move Beyond Xen "Beyond the Darkness of Xenophobic Delusion." This Book serves as your gateway to a new life Beyond Xen...Where Passion and Compassion intersect."

About the Author Aleziah Ellis is a renowned and dynamic Teacher, Business Leader, Builder, and heavy lifter of men, who leads them by the spirit to places without borders. My preparation for this journey has been perfected over many years and my apprenticeship is now over. My purpose and conviction emanates from my Father Most High, who has taught me to understand that it is unacceptable to concur with the multitude of Social Scholars who have become experts at itemizing social failure in America and abroad, with no responsive solutions for the inequalities suffered by the masses. They all seem quite content and justified in highlighting the rise of a few. As a result, I have created a different argument. "AS LONG AS RACE MATTERS, THERE WILL ALWAYS BE CONFUSION, DELUSION, AND EXCLUSION." In these times of dire unrest we can all benefit from a Sherpa of Higher Truths.
