

[Library ebook] Nonprofit Organizations: Principles and Practices (Foundations of Social Work Knowledge Series)

Nonprofit Organizations: Principles and Practices (Foundations of Social Work Knowledge Series)

Thomas Holland Ph.D., Roger Ritvo Ph.D.
*ebooks | Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#1595410 in Books 2008-07-03 Original language: English PDF # 1 9.22 x .66 x 6.191, 1.16 #File Name: 0231139756376 pages | File size: 15.Mb

Thomas Holland Ph.D., Roger Ritvo Ph.D. : Nonprofit Organizations: Principles and Practices (Foundations of Social Work Knowledge Series) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Nonprofit Organizations: Principles and Practices (Foundations of Social Work Knowledge Series):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great textbook By Lovelee LI take a nonprofit management class with one of the authors (Dr. Holland), and I'd have to say that this is a well-written textbook. Each chapter introduces you to the world of managing a nonprofit organization. The chapters aren't full of confusing jargon, and are actually interesting. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Required reading for grad school

By J. D. Davis
Awesome book that made this subject really clear. Glad that I was able to purchase in a timely manner. Thanks

Nonprofit organizations in the United States have exploded over the past two decades, and while many books touch on aspects of these organizations, few directly address the principles and practices incoming workers need to know to become leaders in the field. This volume begins with a history of nonprofits, as well as a discussion of the theories and ethical issues surrounding them, and then provides guidance on how to create, lead, and manage an effective organization. Subsequent chapters cover key issues in human resources; organizational growth and renewal; strategic planning; community relations; fundraising; program evaluation; accountability, particularly financial; and the future of nonprofits. Competition and scarcity of funding has forced nonprofits to produce even more capable managers. This textbook is the best resource for schools of social work, public administration, business, law, public health, and adult education, and it is a vital tool for instructors in resource centers serving nonprofits.

Well structured and clearly written... a welcome addition to the limited literature on management in the third sector.
(Angus McCabe Community Development Journal)
About the Author
Thomas P. Holland is professor and founding director of the Institute for Nonprofit Organizations at the University of Georgia and managed its graduate degree program from 1998 to 2007. He previously served as director of the UGA School of Social Work's Center for Social Services Research and Development and its doctoral program.
Roger A. Ritvo is University Distinguished Research Professor of Management at Auburn University Montgomery. His two most recent books are (with Thomas P. Holland and Joel Ohlsen) Ethical Governance in Health Care and (with Diane Plotkin) Sisters in Sorrow: Voices of Care in the Holocaust.