Old Dog Haven is a nonprofit organization helping western Washington's homeless senior dogs by providing a network of loving safe private foster homes. This illustrated collection of true stories explains the organization by introducing you to 36 Old Dog Haven dogs and the people who rescued them. A celebration of hope, transformation and life lessons taught by old dogs and the people who love them, this book includes articles on planning ahead for your animal's long-term welfare, making end-of-life decisions for your animal companion, and how to cope when an animal friend dies. All profits from the sale of this title go to Old Dog Haven.
