

(Free) Philanthropy and Social Change in Latin America (Series on Latin American Studies)

Philanthropy and Social Change in Latin America (Series on Latin American Studies)

*From Brand: David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies
ePub | *DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF*

Download

Read Online

#3181997 in Books David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies 2006-01-25 2006-02-24Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 9.02 x 1.15 x 6.12l, 1.69 #File Name: 0674019652480 pages | File size: 33.Mb

From Brand: David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies : Philanthropy and Social Change in Latin America (Series on Latin American Studies) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Philanthropy and Social Change in Latin America (Series on Latin American Studies):

Latin America is a profoundly philanthropic region with deeply rooted traditions of solidarity with the less fortunate. Recently, different forms of philanthropy are emerging in the region, often involving community organization and social change. This volume brings together groundbreaking perspectives on such diverse themes as corporate philanthropy, immigrant networks, and new grant-making and operating foundations with corporate, family, and community origins.

About the Author Cynthia Sanborn is Professor of Political Science and Senior Researcher at the Research Center, Universidad del Pacifico, Lima, Peru. Felipe Portocarrero is Professor of Sociology and Director of the Research Center, Universidad del Pacifico, Lima, Peru. John H. Coatsworth is Dean of the School of International and Public Affairs at Columbia University and former Director of the David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies at Harvard University. Francisco Durand is Professor of Political Science at the University of Texas at San Antonio and Associate Professor of Sociology at the Pontifical Catholic University of Peru.