Bradford Smith, Sylvia Shue, Jennifer Lisa Vest, Joseph Villarreal : Philanthropy in Communities of Color (Philanthropic and Nonprofit Studies) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Philanthropy in Communities of Color (Philanthropic and Nonprofit Studies):

Philanthropy is often associated with wealthy people giving large amounts of money to charitable organizations and indirectly to people they don't personally know. Ethnic philanthropy is almost totally different: it consists primarily of people sharing modest wealth with other people, most of whom the givers know well. Too often communities of color are portrayed as takers rather than givers; this important study debunks that myth.

About the Author
Bradford Smith is Senior Researcher with the National Council on Crime and Delinquency and former Director of Research for the Institute for Nonprofit Organization Management.
