Robin L. Sarantos Ph.D. : The First Fifty Years - East Ridge Retirement Village before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The First Fifty Years - East Ridge Retirement Village:

Robin L. Sarantos, Ph.D., retired Miami-Dade County School counselor and Miami Herald columnist and volunteer, brought together eleven Village residents who wanted to gather the history of the nation's first senior living facility owned and governed by the people. They diligently searched 50 years of documents between 1961 and 2011. The First

Fifty Years - East Ridge Retirement Village is the result of 15 months of fastidious research through thousands of papers weaving together a story of fifty years of successful senior living. The book affords a golden opportunity for Baby Boomers considering retirement to gain first hand information. East Ridge Retirement Village offers a safe, warm, sunny South Florida climate in a democratically run Village with a functioning Town Hall, an active Town Council and a plethora of ongoing activities. As a Santa Fe Senior Living Community, East Ridge is always concerned with maintaining the optimal lifestyle. All royalties from the book will be donated to the East Ridge Retirement Village.
