Donna Lee Van Cott : The Friendly Liquidation of the Past: The Politics of Diversity in Latin America (Pitt Latin American Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Friendly Liquidation of the Past: The Politics of Diversity in Latin America (Pitt Latin American Series):

Based on interviews with more than 100 participants, Van Cott demonstrates how social issues were placed on the constitutional reform agenda and transformed into the nations highest law. She follows each reform for five years to assess early results of what she calls an emerging model of multicultural constitutionalism.

"A sophisticated analysis of the push to recognize indigenous rights in Bolivia and Colombia . . . Placing her analysis in a broad comparative framework, Van Cott makes clear that these issues resonate profoundly wherever the traditional model of a culturally homogenous nation-state is under challenge."--Foreign Affairs
